3. Categories of personal data processed

The data processed by the Data Controller include your image recorded by video surveillance systems and may also include, as a result of the videotaping, any physical characteristics.

4. Methods of data processing

We inform you that your data are processed with the aid of electronic tools, in compliance with the Regulations and the applicable Measures of the Data Protection Authority, including, in particular, the aforementioned Measure on video surveillance - April 8, 2010, and Guidelines 3/2019 on the processing of personal data through video devices (adopted on January 29, 2020). The data will be processed according to procedures and methods related to the purposes indicated above. The filming, therefore, is carried out in such a way as to avoid detailed and invasive images of people's privacy, resulting in a limitation of the possibility of identification.

The Personal Data referable to you, will be, therefore:

- Treated lawfully and according to fairness;
- Collected and recorded for specified, explicit, and legitimate purposes;
- Relevant, complete and not exceeding the formalities of processing;
- kept in a form which permits identification of the data subject for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which they are collected or subsequently processed;
- processed according to unambiguous procedures established by a single supervisory authority ("Lead Authority"), identified by reference to the state where the Holder has its principal office.

In addition, the Holder's business processes ensure the confidentiality and security of information and its storage in compliance with legislative requirements and required security measures.

5. Scope of Disclosure of Personal Data

Your data may be accessed by the following parties exclusively for the purposes described and in compliance with the rules set forth in the Regulations and the aforementioned Provision issued by the Personal Data Protection Authority:

- Data Processors appointed by the Controller pursuant to Article 28 of the Regulations, including consultants and freelancers;
- personnel authorized to process the data in accordance with Article 29 of the Regulations, in particular with designation by the Controller of persons authorized to use the facilities and view the records, in cases where it is necessary to pursue the previously stated purposes;
- external data processors appointed by the data controller such as video surveillance equipment maintenance companies, security institutions, companies that manage computer networks and systems;
- to competent authorities (e.g., judicial and police authorities) who make a formal request.

6. Period of data retention

The maximum retention time of the recorded images is 24/48 hours following the detection, after which the recorded data is automatically deleted, subject to specific requirements for further retention in connection with holidays or closure of offices, as well as in the case of adhering to a specific investigative request of the judicial authority or judicial police or in the case of filing complaints/complaints with the Authority.

7. Recognized rights

We inform you that, as a Data Subject, you may exercise your rights under Articles 15-22 of the Regulations.

Specifically, in accordance with current regulations, you are granted the following rights:

1. Request access to your personal data from the Owner;
2. To request the deletion of their data;
3. to object to their processing for legitimate reasons (including in part).

To assert your rights, you may contact the Data Controller or the Data Protection Officer at the contacts above.

We would also like to remind you that where the response to requests cannot have been considered satisfactory, you have the right to address and file a complaint with the Data Protection Authority (www.garanteprivacy.it) in the manner provided for in the Applicable Regulations.
